

Bring your boldest ideas to life with this intensive training led by Alessandro Zannoni, an Italian shoemaker and designer. This unique workshop will focus on the design and creation of high-heeled platform boots, a rare skill that will expand your creative and professional horizons.

You'll have access to a curated selection of colored leathers with metallic, patent, iridescent, or textured finishes, inspiring experimentation and enriching your approach. Whether you come from leatherwork, fashion, design, performing arts, or the drag scene, this course is a perfect opportunity to deepen your skills and explore new directions in your practice.

Course offered in ENGLISH: The instructor's assistant will be able to provide support in French.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Maximum 12 participants

Duration: 35 hours (5 days)

Dates: Tuesday, October 14 – Saturday, October 18

Schedule: From 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Cost: $300 (materials included, no taxes added)*

Location: 911 Jean-Talon E, Montreal (QC) H2R 1V5.

Check our website for recommended prerequisites and to complete your registration.

LEARN MORE

ALESSANDRO ZANNONI

This trainer is an Italian designer and shoemaker who blends innovation with traditional craftsmanship. He teaches at the IUAV University of Venice and leads the shoe workshop for the prestigious Salzburg Festival. He is recognized for pushing the technical and creative boundaries of contemporary footwear.

CONFERENCE & MEET-UP

October 16, 2025, 6 PM

Discover his journey and work in a friendly atmosphere.

Details coming soon.

The Continuing Education Program at CMAQ are offered in partnership with Intervention-Compétences Culture and with financial participation from the Government of Québec.

**This is a subsidized training, the actual cost of the training is $1,625, so more reason to take advantage of it!*