

Want to create?

Come discover what you're capable of! In a friendly and relaxed atmosphere, learn the essential techniques of leathercraft and leave with a unique piece made by your own hands.

Colingual experience

French and English coexist in our workshops. Everyone is free to express themselves in the language of their choice, while the instructor ensures everyone's pace is consistent. An inclusive format that encourages exchange and mutual support.

Choose learning over buying

Registering for a CMCM workshop means creating with your hands, discovering a one-of-a-kind craft, and joining a community that values the quality and work of artisans.

Your registration fee covers:

- Fair compensation for the instructors
- All necessary materials
- Personalized creations
- Hands-on guidance in small groups
- Support for local artisans
- Sustaining CMCM's non-profit mission
